

Obituaries

John McCarty, 76, prominent trial attorney

John (Jack) McCarty Jr., 76, died May 25. A resident of Duxbury, formerly of Dorchester and Scituate, he graduated Boston College Law School, class of '54, and New York University Graduate School of Law ('58). Mr. McCarty was a well-known trial attorney, representing both plaintiffs and defendants. He was the son of the late John and Alice (Duffy) McCarty.

Mr. McCarty was an Army veteran of the Korean Conflict and a distinguished member of Hatherly Golf Club in N.

Scituate. His other interests included creative cooking, literature, birdwatching, jazz and classical music, and fishing.

He leaves his wife of 51 years, Therése (Shirley)

(Hennessey) McCarty, a brother, William H. McCarty, and his wife, Margarite, of Florida, as well as many nieces and nephews. He was the brother of the late Mary Moore and Patricia Schwotzer, both of Scituate.

A Mass will be celebrated at Holy Family Parish Church Saturday, June 2 at noon. Gifts in his memory can be made to Holy Family Parish or to Cranberry Hospice, 36 Cordage Park Circle, #326, Plymouth, MA.

Frank Peard, child advocate